TABLE OF CONTENTS

Congress of the United States, begun and held at the City of New York, on Wednesday, the fourth of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine.

THE Conventions of a number of the States having at the time of their adopting the Constitution expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added: And as extending the ground of public confidence in the Government will best ensure the beneficent ends of its institution

RESOLVED, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, two thirds of both Houses concurring, that the following Articles be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as amendments to the Constitution of the United States, all or any of which Articles, when ratified by three fourths of the said Legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the said Constitution, viz.

ARTICLES in addition to, and amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America, proposed by Congress, and ratified by the Legislatures of the several States, pursuant to the fifth Article of the original Constitution.

Article the first. After the first enumeration required by the first Article of the Constitution, there shall be one Representative for every thirty thousand, until the number shall amount to one hundred, after which the proportion shall be so regulated by Congress, that there shall be not less than one hundred Representatives, nor less than one Representative for every forty thousand persons, until the number of Representatives shall amount to two hundred, after which the proportion shall be so regulated by Congress, that there shall not be less than two hundred Representatives, nor more than one Representative for every fifty thousand persons.

Article the second. No law, varying the compensation for the services of the Senators and Representatives, shall take effect, until an election of Representatives shall have intervened.

Article the third. Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Article the fourth. A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the [illegible] of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

Article the fifth. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house, without the consent of the Owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Article the sixth. The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

Article the seventh. No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

Article the eighth. In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defence.

Article the ninth. In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any Court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

Article the tenth. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

Article the eleventh. The enumeration in this Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or impair others retained by the people.

Article the twelfth. The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

Frederick Augustus Muhlenberg Speaker of the House of Representatives.

John Adams Vice President of the United States, and President of the Senate.

ATTEST.

"I live from day to day"

I don't think about time–I live from day to day. The future doesn't bother me.

The trouble in the world today is caused by people not caring. Without love you have nothing.

Put your faith in the man upstairs. He will take care of you!

Mitchell Community College is o fine school, ond our community is lucky to hove such o school. Here at Mitchell, we con reolize the meoning of the Bicentenniol becouse the school has been here over 100 yeors ond contributed to the history of Statesville. We, os students, should set oside some time this yeor to fully recognize the volue and meoning of the bicentenniol yeor.

Terry Watts

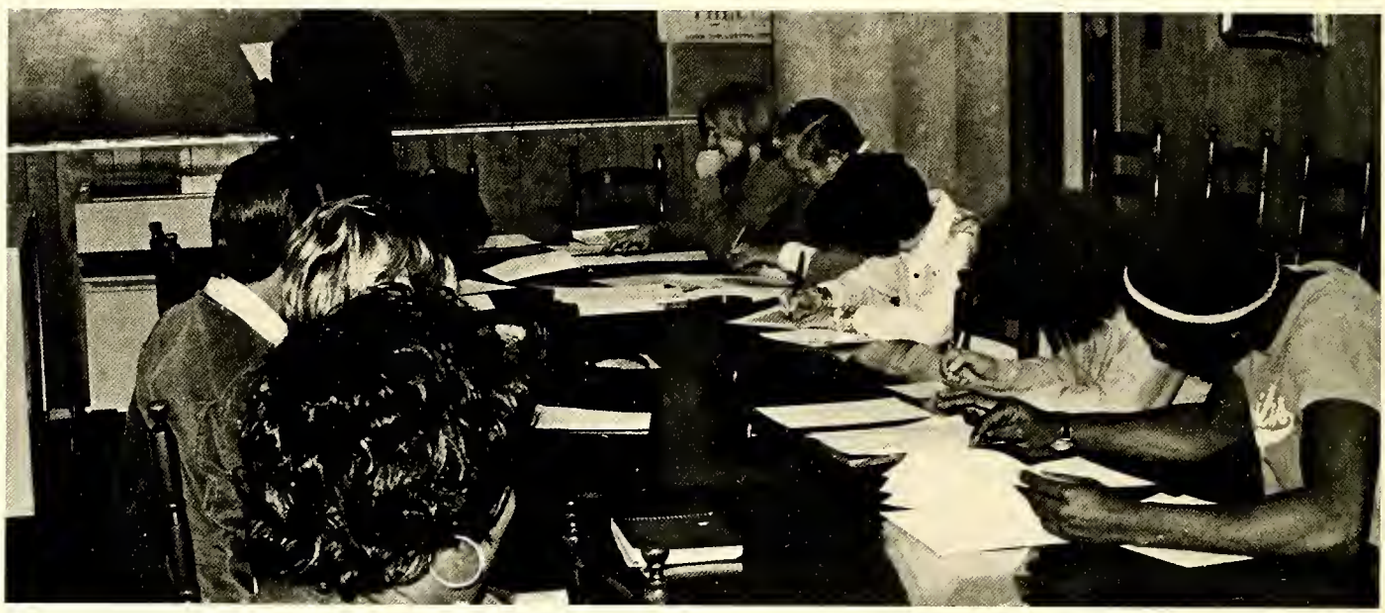
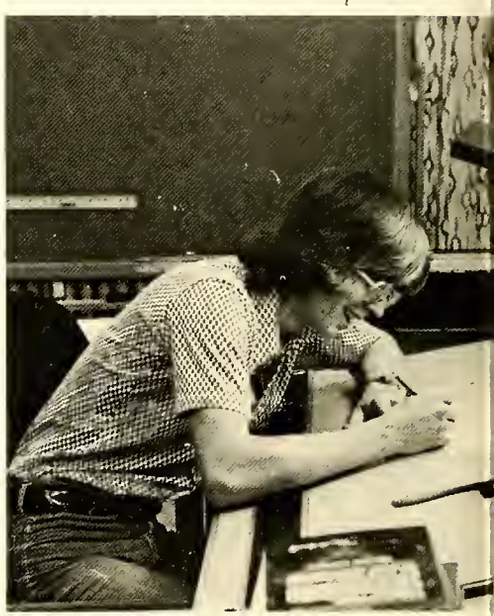
"The greatest nation in the world"



The celebration of the Bicentenniol mcons that this nation hos stood for two hundred years as the most powerful notion of oll. It hos the ability to recover from hard times, to take core of other people in other notions os well os it's own, to keep peoce in times of trouble, and most of oll, oble to be called the greotest notion in the world.

Chris Woods

"Only time will never die"



The rivers flow, the seas roll on
The days pile to the sky,
The minutes, hours, and days have wings
Only time will never die.

Armies mareh, and men make war
Women seream and ery,
For Husbands, sons, and brothers gone
Only time will never die.

Friends you'll meet, and Friends you'll lose
And men will tell you lies,
Old men live their lonely lives
Only time will never die.

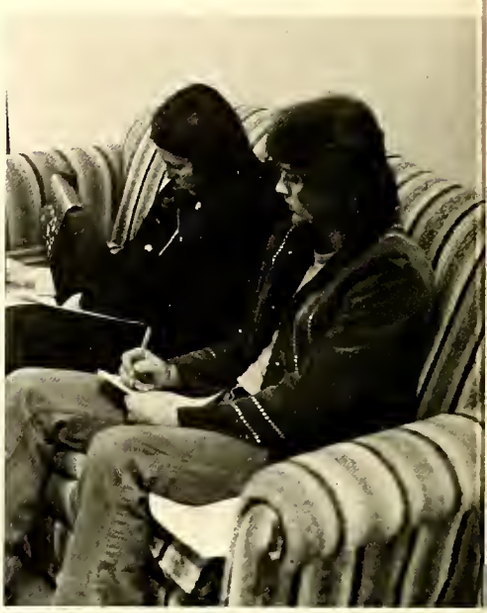
"Only time will never die"

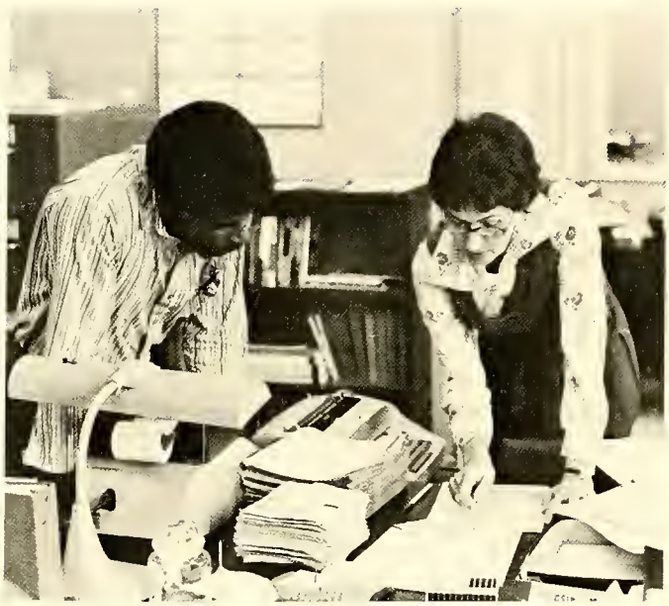


You're here today, tomorrow gone
The days, they seem to fly,
Prepare yourself to leave this world
Only time will never die.

So here's to the brother of wind and trees,
Thot makes the bells to chime.
So here's to the friend of the sun and the moon
Here's to Father Time.

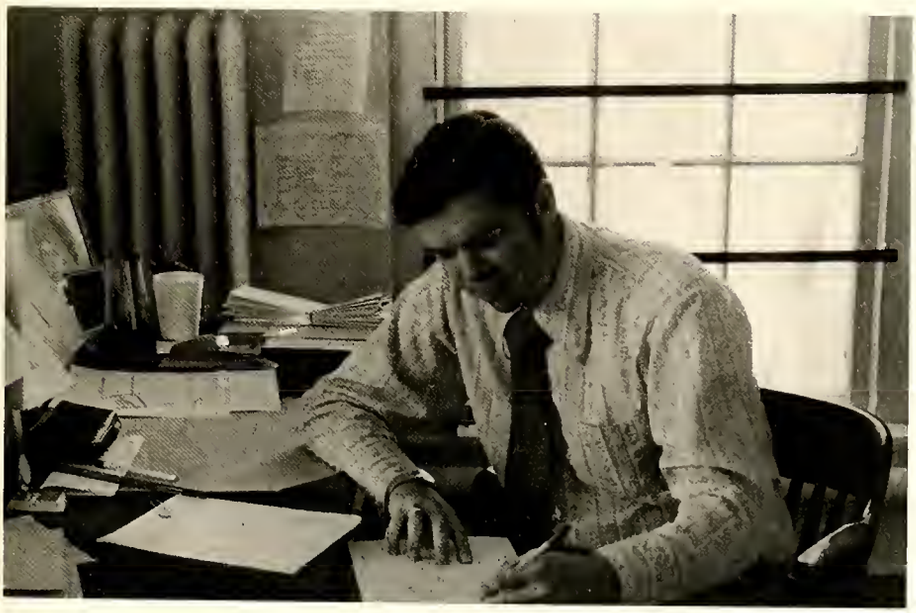
Lee Tate

"America is the greatest country in the world"



America is the greatest country in the world. We all should be proud to live here. The times may seem hard, but they are really the best there ever were. We here at Mitchell should strive to make this the best year ever.

Eddie Miller



"Birthdays are always exciting"

I am so delighted to be in Ameriea during this Bieentennial year. Birthdays are always exciting, ond more so when it's our country thot is being honored. As my thoughts turn boek in time, I feel very humble. So many men ond women hove given so mueh of their time, effort, strength, love, and eouroge to the founding of our country thot I feel honored today to remember them. It is my hope thot before another hundred years hove passed I, too, will hove contributed in some smoll meosure to my eountry's good.

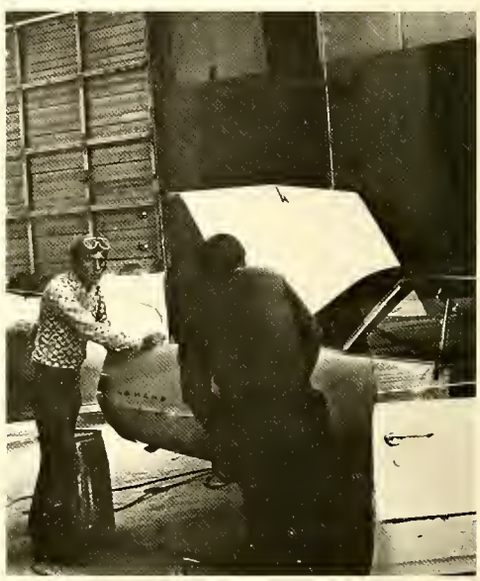
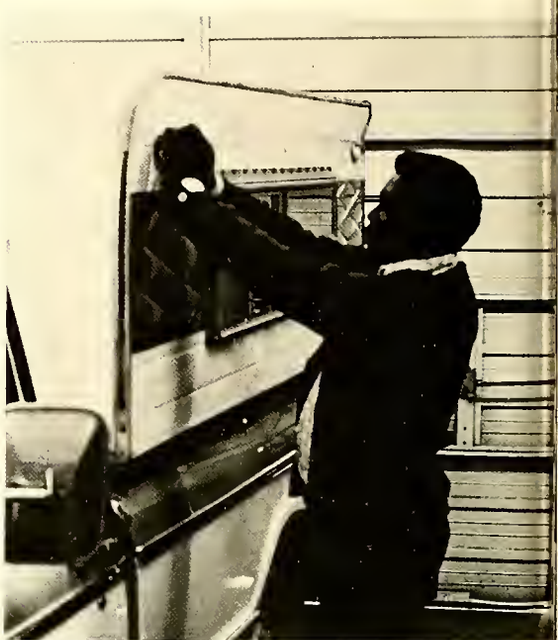
"Freedom of every kind."

The Bicentenniol to me is a celebration of o two hundred year old country that is the greatest nation on the earth. This is a country where the people have fought for freedom of every kind ond, yet, still don't reolize how much they reolly do have. During this time let's take on inventory of whot we have and realize thot what we have here is a fantostic country.

Thomas M. Little

"Friendship and Loyalty—Prosperity and Comradery"



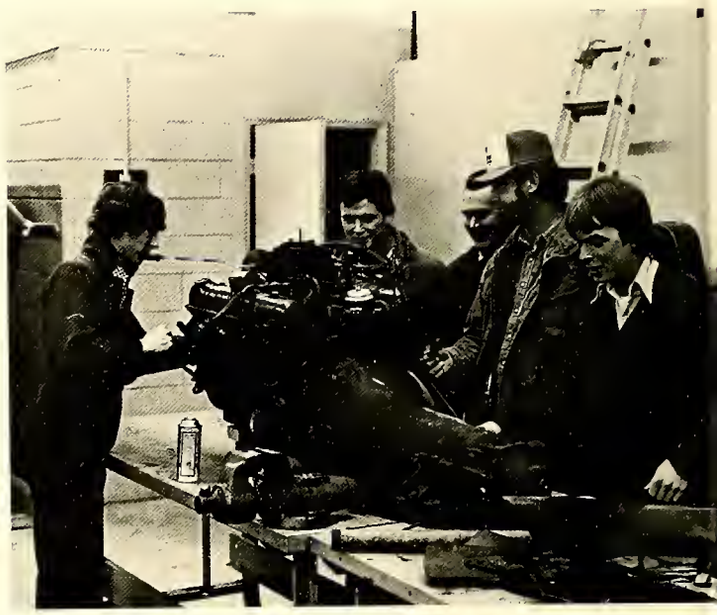


The Bicentennial means ta me that the United States has praven its friendship and layalty to ather countries far and near. It has lived in prasperity and camradery to celebrate its twa hundred years.

Mitchell has cantributed a great part ta this cauntry by praviding excellent educatianal facilities for the many peaple af this cammunity and state.

James Ramsey

"Two hundred years from now, I hope there will be someone as proud to be an American as I am."



The Bicentennial is the celebrotion of our nation's two-hundredth birthday. I am very proud to be oble to celebrate this os on American. I am grateful for those who fought to make this freedom possible. Two hundred yeors from now, I hope there will be someone else as proud to be an Americon as I am.

Willie Maddox

"Happiness and Freedom"

To me the Bicentennial means two hundred years of happiness and freedom for a country and its people who have fought hard to make it the greatest place on earth to live and work.

Benny Carter

"Better Education"

Time ond the Bicentennial together mean thot although this wos once a privote college, it is now o community college thot is growing greoter every doy. It is the outgrowth of on old school progressing on toward better educotion.

Carl Ronkin

"Freedom of Choice"

The Bicentennial is a time in which all studcnts should be aware that what took place two hundred years ago enables them to have the freedom of choice to choose the school they want to attend as well as what they want to learn.

Student government has its basis taken from the events that transpired two hundred years ago—those events that assure us that we will be able to choose those who govern us.

Jerry Ashburn

"Be proud to be an American"

The Bicentennial to me is a time when everyone should look back. They should look at how people have struggled to make America a better place to live and at the hardships in doing it. Be proud to be an American.

Mrs. Norma Link has contributed much to Mitchell Community College through her winning smile and immense friendliness. She never fails to know almost everyone's name and a little something about them. When someone enters the Student Union, it is always pleasant to see her smile and wave.

It is with great pleasure and pride that we dedicate the 1975-76 CIRCLE to a great friend, "Momma" Link.
